

FITZSIMMONS TO WED AGAIN

Julia Gifford, Leading Lady of "The Johnny Girls," to Be the Puglietti's Third Wife, It Is Announced in Chicago.

Fitzsimmons is receiving congratulations on the announcement of his engagement to marry Julia Gifford, the leading southerly of "The Johnny Girls" company, now playing at the Vickers Theatre. "I will not deny it," said Miss Gifford, "but I do not want to talk about it. I had my glove off I could show you something real nice."

Fitzsimmons, through his freckles when asked if he was going to be married again. "Yes, I think we are," he admitted.

"Did you give Miss Gifford a ring?" "Yes, and it is a dandy, with a two-carat spark in it," he replied with a burst of enthusiasm.

The ex-champion heavy-weight, despite his success in love as a young college boy, and Miss Gifford are both stopping at the Auditorium and "Bob" has been attending to his attentions. When not with Miss Gifford, Fitz stands in the lobby of the Auditorium accepting congratulations and making many trips to the neighboring cafe to drink the health of the fair bride to be.

If Miss Gifford accompanies Fitzsimmons to the altar she will be the third lady to bear the name of Fitzsimmons. The first, Mrs. Fitzsimmons, secured a divorce. The second, who was Rose Johnson, is the mother of two boys and encouraged him in all his pugilistic ventures, even going so far as to shout encouragement to him from the ring side in his last championship battle. She died April 17 at her home in Bensonhurst, Brooklyn, and the pugilist took her loss so much to heart that he became morose and it was reported that his condition was serious.

FIRST AMERICAN BABE BORN IN GUAM.

Event is Hailed with Delight by the Natives of the Little Island.

News of the birth of the first American baby on the island of Guam was received today by Capt. Thomas Ryan, of Kinney Park, Staten Island, who is Chief of Transportation in the United States Quartermaster's Department. The distinguished young native of Guam is Eugene Louise Elizabeth Ryan, daughter of Capt. Ryan's son, Eugene E. Ryan, who is paymaster on the island of Guam, with the rank of lieutenant. When the young lady arrived on March 23, the event was heralded as historic. The christening took place on Easter Sunday in the Catholic Church at Guam, Gov. Sewell and Mrs. Gayer, wife of Lt. Gayer, U. S. N., acting as sponsors.

At the reception held after the ceremony all the prominent army people and wealthy residents of the island were present, and gifts were showered on the white-skinned little one.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ryan, who was Miss Verle Tremor, of San Francisco, write, however, that they are very anxious to bring their little one back to the healthful climate of New York.

FOUND $5,000 IN JEWELS HIDDEN

Police Discover Big Lot of Plunder Concealed in Wall of McCullum Flat After the Negro Maid's Confession.

Behind the wainscoting in the kitchen of the flat No. 927 Sixth avenue, occupied by James McCullum and his family, the police last night found jewels to the value of $5,000 and cash to the amount of $100, of which Mrs. McCullum was robbed on May 29.

On that date the robbery was reported to the police by Mr. McCullum, who said that while his wife was in the bathroom and her maid was dressing her hair a burglar had entered the flat and looted it of jewels and money. The front door apparently had been forced, as had a dresser drawer. A cold chisel was found in the flat, presumably left by the burglar.

The police suspected the maid, and then found she had a duplicate set of keys. She was arrested and indicted, although Mrs. McCullum was positive the woman, Molly Peterson, a negro of guide age, was innocent.

Yesterday in the Tombs the woman confessed to Detectives Charlton and Boyle. She said that she had had the duplicates keys made and found time while her mistress was drying her hair to arrange the place to look as though it had been entered.

She took the jewelry and cash, wrapped them in a napkin, loosed the wainscoting and placed the stuff beneath the floor. That it might not be found if the wainscoting was removed, she suspended it by a string tied to a nail she had driven in the flooring.

After getting the confession, the police went to the flat and found the jewelry and money. The woman will plead guilty. Mrs. McCullum's faith in servants has been shaken.

"BOB WHITE" PAYS FIRST VISIT TO CITY.

Quail Hunters Delighted to Hear His Shriill Whistle in Van Cortlandt Park.

Quail hunting in New York City is an added attraction of the metropolis. The quail are here all right, but the police may not let you hunt them.

Carry computers say they see beards of quail in Van Cortlandt Park nearly every morning. They can hear their whistle, and judging from the area they cover, it is believed there is a goodly number of them.

Not in twenty years have quail been seen near the city, and as for being in the city limits the oldest inhabitant does not remember that. The theory of men is that the game birds have been driven south by the forest fires in the north.

Several residents in the vicinity of the park report that they have also seen a great many rabbits and a silver fox.

SOME REMEDIES WORSE THAN DISEASE

Liquid Remedies Charged with Alcohol.

WHY KIDNEY-WORT TABLETS CURE WHEN OTHERS FAIL.

It is literally true that liquid prepared kidney remedies are worse than the diseases they pretend to cure.

The chances of recovery from kidney disorders when no medicine is taken are greater than when liquid remedies, charged with alcohol, are taken into the kidneys. Nature, unassisted, may pull one through a mild attack of kidney disorder; an alcoholic remedy is sure to inflame, irritate and excite, so that the kidneys, if one recovers in spite of the alcohol, remain forever weakened and liable to disease.

Recovery is certain if a carefully prepared, thoughtful, authorized specific, such as Dr. Pettigill's Kidney-Wort Tablets, is quickly used. The Tablets are scrupulously free from alcohol.

St. Regis Falls, Neb., April 14, 1903.

Dear Sirs: I have had kidney trouble of all kinds for thirty-five years, and have never found anything that helped me so much as Kidney-Wort Tablets.

Yours sincerely,

MRS. CHARLES BOSTIL.

The early signs of threatening kidney trouble are pains in the loins and regions of the kidneys, and headaches, foul breath, scanty or painful urination, inability to hold the urine; there is often constipation, weakness, feeling of faintness, nausea, vomiting and distention of the stomach, swelling of feet and legs. If you have any of these symptoms that alarm you, if you experience heat in the region of the kidneys and the urine is bright red color, depositing red or whitish thick sediment; if your skin is dry; if you have dizzy feelings, shortness of breath, or are losing in weight and strength, take Kidney-Wort Tablets without delay.

Examine your urine. If you find sediment like brick dust or cloudiness you should realize the danger that threatens you. Kidney-Wort Tablets work promptly. But don't delay too long.
